

VALERIA MANGANI

CEO VM Company srl

Valeria Mangani was born in Johannesburg, South Africa.
She speaks Italian and English as motherlanguage and is fluent in French.

American Maturity at the American Overseas School of Rome.
Four-year degree in "Fashion Design" at the IED European Institute of Design in Rome.

Later she specialized at the Gemological Institute of America-GIA in Santa Monica, Los Angeles, in "Precious Stones, Diamonds and Pearls."
In London, at the auction house Christie's, she attended courses Antiques "17th and 18th century Paintings and Furniture".

Since 2006 she is President of the Female Universe. Annually assigns the Capitoline Venus Award held at the Capitoline Museums, under the patronage of the Ministry of Labour and Equal Opportunities.

2008 Ceremonial Master of Public Administration and Companies at the Higher School of Public Administration and Local Authorities (CEIDA).

2009-2011 Professor in the "Textile Technology in the workplace" to the faculty of Occupational Medicine, Sapienza University of Rome.

Since May 2009, was appointed Vice-President of AltaRoma s.c.p.a.

2009-2013 She's the Director of Institutional Relations IBAC-International Business Advisory Council. International Board coordinated by Sir Martin Sorrel (WPP Chairman), composed of more than 50 CEOs and Presidents of major global multinationals.

2012-2013 She has been teaching at the University Roma Tre in the Master "Languages of Tourism and Intercultural Communication" at the Faculty of Humanities.

She sits on numerous committees of prestigious No-Profit Organization active in the protection of human rights, with constant contacts with the American cultural environment.
Madrina in numerous high-impact socio-cultural events, national and international.
Countless articles and interviews in Chinese and Russian, which portray the leader of the issues of ethics and productivity in the fashion industry.

As part of her research and studies she is author of successful publications (over 10 volumes in the field of well-being and protection of the quality of life) for the series Nature&Health, edited by Tecniche Nuove spa in Milan.

At the center of her interests constantly the protection of the individual and of the body, physical and cultural integrity. She participates in numerous national and international conferences.